

Nestlé Good food, Good life

SENIOR EXECUTIVE – PROCUREMENT

The Job: To understand, communicate and help implement sourcing strategies on a local level (at the market) including new or changing items/ services, S2P channel management and of new suppliers. Reporting to the Head of Procurement, the person will gather data and business requirements, and convey local requirements to transmit them to local business partners, local sourcing teams and above market category teams for setting actions/ strategies accordingly. He/ she will liaise with the NiM stakeholders for assigned scope focused on functions and plant, production and co-manufacturing sites in the Market concerned. The person is also responsible to procure all packaging.

The Person: We are looking for a dynamic go-getter who can add value to our function. Candidates for this position must be passionate about achieving goals, with strong leadership skills to develop and maintain productive relationships with respective stakeholders. A degree or equivalent professional qualification in Business Management/ Supply Chain Management/ Engineering with at least 1 - 2 years of experience is a must.

How do you apply?

To apply, visit and submit your completed application within the next 7 days by clicking on the 'Search jobs' link*. Shortlisted candidates will hear from us shortly.

We look forward to enhancing lives together.

