

Bring your difference and define your own journey

Apply now →

Ceylon Tobacco Company PLC is a leading FMCG organisation in Sri Lanka and a member of the most recognized International tobacco group, British American Tobacco (BAT). BAT is brimming with unique opportunities. For the right person, it's the perfect place to forge a truly exceptional, global career.

KICK-START YOUR CAREER!

We are looking for Interns!

We are a company of global individuals and looking for committed and driven undergraduates to join our Quality Department as an Intern to support in the areas of Documentation & Lab Testing Services. This internship will be based in our Kandy office.

The ideal candidate should possess the following requirements:

- You should be following a Diploma or undergraduate in Laboratory Technology in Chemistry conducted by Institute of Chemistry, Ceylon or equivalent from a reputed University.
- Excellent communication skills in English and Sinhala, both written and verbal.
- Self-driven and possess the ability to perform under minimum supervision.

Can you rise to our challenge?

If you have the desire and confidence, and you feel that you have the right capabilities and strengths to fulfill the requirements of the above opportunity, please forward your application to reach us on or before Monday, 15th June 2020 to sulochana\_mahavithana@bat.com

*Only short listed candidates will be notified.