

Senior Executive - Financial Reporting

This position is available in the Finance Department of our terminal operations in Port of Colombo and will report to the Deputy Chief Finance Officer.

The Role

As the Senior Executive – Financial Reporting you will be responsible for;

- Sort out the logic of standardized statements of management accounting caliber, and carry out the management of digital tools and operation and maintenance of logic.
- Output standardized statements of management accounting caliber, serve the subsequent data analysis and application of each financial BP, communicate with financial BP in time, and respond quickly to the requirements of standardized data.
- Use data self-service analysis tools to carry out self-service data analysis, output data analysis results and apply them.
- Preparing and analyzing periodic (quarterly, semi-annual and annual) financial statements.
- According to the request from headquarters plan, schedule, and manage the monthly workflow.
- Ensures timely and accurate production of financial statements and related regulatory filings, as applicable.
- Effective coordination of activities with other departments and headquarters.
- Ensures all controls and procedures are adhered to as well as makes recommendations for changes.
- Ensures effective use of reporting system and makes recommendations for system enhancements.
- Develop internal training classes with the training liaison.

*“ CICT, Winner of the Best Container
Terminal in Asia
for 7 successive years
since 2017”*

The Person

Qualifications, Experience and other Attributes

- Bachelor's degree in Accounting/ Finance, Financial Engineering or related field with CPA/ACCA qualification.
- Preferably the candidate should possess more than 06 years of experience in similar capacity and experience in a Big Four accounting firms.
- Creative thinking, quick learning ability, good analytical skills, solid writing skills, proficient in office software operation.
- Sound communication and coordination skills, good at cross-team and cross-organization cooperation, team spirit and sense of responsibility, strong ability to work under pressure.
- Written and oral communication skills in Chinese Language would be an added advantage.
- Candidates below 29 years of age are preferred.

*“We offer a competitive compensation package and opportunities for personal and professional growth.
You will be immersed in a truly multinational, open and an engaging working environment”*

Please direct your comprehensive CV with details of 2 non-related referees by email to careers@cict.lk and the subject of the email should be the position applied for “Senior Executive – Financial Reporting”.

Application Deadline : 31st May 2024

+94 112 666 888

careers@cict.lk

www.cict.lk

